

BYU ORGAN WORKSHOP 2020
SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Scholarships are intended to assist persons who desire to attend the BYU Organ Workshop, but are financially unable to do so. The scholarship covers attendance at the four-day workshop but does not cover travel, private instruction, housing, food, child care, etc.

Applications should be completed as soon as possible, and must be received no later than April 30, 2020.

BYU Organ Workshop Scholarships
253 HCEB
Provo, UT 84602

Applications can be mailed or emailed to:
andrea.merriman@byu.edu

Scholarship awardees will be notified by e-mail. In order not to miss the fee deadline at the lowest price, full registration is recommended before May 14, 2020. If a scholarship is awarded, it will come as a refund to your account.

Full Name: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ ZIP: _____

Email Address: _____

Telephone Number (home): _____ (cell): _____

Date of Birth (MM/DD/YY): _____ (must be 18 years of age and above)

Employer: _____ Position _____

Full-time Part-time Self-employed Not employed

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Write and attach a statement (200 words or less) detailing why you want to attend the BYU Organ Workshop, your financial need, personal and family circumstances, and any other information relevant to receiving a scholarship. You may also include how you intend to use the training provided to serve, teach, or perpetuate the playing of good organ music in your ward/stake or how your participation in this program will impact you, your family, or your church service.

*Financial assistance for BYU Continuing Education programs may constitute taxable income. Total assistance received in a year of $600 or more is reported on a Form 1099-MISC. An adult applicant for financial assistance or the parent or guardian of a minor applicant for financial assistance may be required to complete a Form W-9 in order to receive financial assistance to allow proper reporting.